Transport Airport-Hotel

There are 2 airports in Rome:

Ciampino Airport

ARRIVAL BY TRAIN

The nearest railway station to Ciampino airport is Ciampino Città, connected to the airport by the buses COTRAL/SCHIAFFINI, which run every 30 minutes. The travel time is about 5 minutes. Tickets are sold in the bus and on the ground and cost 1 euro.

A light metro can then be taken, which connects Ciampino railway station to Termini railway station in central Rome with an average travel time of 15 minutes.

ARRIVAL BY TAXI

A taxi service to central Rome is available at the exit of Ciampino airport. The service costs 30 euro, baggage included, for a maximum of four passengers, to all destinations inside the Mura Aureliane which is the central area of the city. The cost is the same for a return trip from Rome to Ciampino airport.

Taxis in the service of the City of Rome are white and can be recognised by the sign "TAXI" on the top and by the identifying license number on the doors, on the back and inside the car.

ATTENTION: Other vehicles at the airport exit could be driven by people without authorisation of the taxi service and the fee required could be higher than the fee foreseen by Comune di Roma. You are advised not to accept offers of transport from people inside the airport terminal.

Fiumicino Airport

ARRIVAL BY TRAIN

There are two possible rail connections to reach the center of Rome from Fiumicino international airport:

- A direct connection to the Termini railway station with the Fiumicino-Rome service, which takes about 30 minutes without intermediate stops;
- Alternatively it is possible to take the Fiumicino-Sabina line (FM1) which stops in some of the main Rome railway stations (Tiburtina, Tuscolana, Ostiense, Trastevere) and usually runs every 15 minutes and on holidays every 30 minutes. The cost is 5.50 euro.

ARRIVAL BY TAXI

In correspondence with Terminals 1,2, 3 and 5 of Fiumicino airport, a taxi service to central Rome is available. The cost of the service is fixed at 40 euro, baggage included, for a maximum of four passengers, for all destinations inside the Mura Aureliane which is the central area of the city. The cost is the same for the return trip from Rome to Fiumicino.

For further information, please contact P.I.T, the Tourist Information Point of Rome, inside the airport, which supplies information on the service, by checking if the destination requested is the destination subject to the fixed rate.

ATTENTION: Other vehicles at the airport exit could be driven by people without a regular authorisation of the taxi service and the fee required could be higher than the fee foreseen by Comune di Roma. You are advised not to accept offers of transport from people inside the airport terminal.
