

On 8 March 2005, Androula Vassiliou, European Liberal Women Network chair launched an appeal to ELDR party members to become signatories to the global initiative "Win with Women" and to use it to increase women's political participation in their respective countries. Launched in December 2003, under the auspices of former U.S Secretary of State Madeleine Albright, this initiative seeks to increase the share of women in political life through political parties. It is based on a Global Action Plan, which identifies concrete actions to increase women's participation in parties.
